

OUTSTANDING YOUNG RANGE PROFESSIONAL SELECTION CRITERIA

This award is presented to an individual who has demonstrated extraordinary potential and promise as a young range management professional. This award is presented as an encouragement for outstanding performance by young men and women entering the profession of range management.

1. Recipient will be considered without regard to race, creed, color, sex, or national origin.
2. The primary criterion for this award is tangible evidence that the nominee's accomplishments demonstrate extraordinary potential and promise as a future leader in the range profession.
3. Demonstration of leadership and professional potential may be in all facets of range management, including ranch management, agency employment, research, and education. Generally, demonstrated potential across a broad perspective is better than specialized attainments in a single area.
4. A nominee's participation in the Society activities, particularly at the Chapter and Section levels, is desirable. Membership in the Society is required.
5. The nominee shall have not reached his or her 35th birthday by January 1st of the year the award is to be conferred.
6. A recipient of this award shall not be eligible to receive this award again.

EDUCATION/TRAINING/EXPERIENCE:

Include: education (years, where, degrees), training (on-the-job or otherwise, years, certificates), experience, current position.

PROFESSIONAL POTENTIAL:

Demonstration of professional potential may be in the areas of range management, agency employment, research, or education.

LEADERSHIP:

What has this individual done to get others to undertake and practice good range management?

RANGE SOCIETY & COMMUNITY ACTIVITY:

Include: SRM membership, number of years and participation, other society memberships and participation, speaking engagements, community service, civic honors, participation in conservation programs, etc.